DECLARATION UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.47(a)

Sir:

An inventor of the above-identified application, Mrs. Kyoko Katagi, refuses to execute any Declaration in connection with this case.

Mrs. Katagi was employed at Yokkaichi Research Laboratories of Kyowa Hakko Chemical Co., Ltd. (formerly Kyowa Yuka Co., Ltd.) from August 1, 2000.

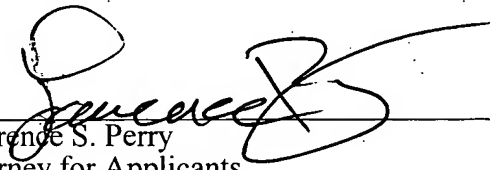

During the course of her employment, Mrs. Katagi was a joint inventor of Japanese patent application No. 2002-195456, entitled "Filters of Electronic Display Device." Kyowa Yuka Co., Ltd. received an assignment of the Japanese patent application from Mrs. Katagi. The JP 2002-195456 application was filed on July 4, 2002.

Mrs. Kyoko Katagi resigned from Kyowa Hakko Chemical Co., Ltd. on August 31, 2002.

Kyowa Hakko Chemical filed PCT application No. JP03/08479 claiming priority to Japanese Patent Application No. 2002-195456 on July 3, 2003. Since Kyowa Hakko Chemical intended to enter the national phase of the PCT patent application in various countries, the inventors were asked to execute necessary formal papers for the national phase applications at that time. Mrs. Katagi explicitly refused to sign any such documents.

On August 25, 2004, Kyowa Hakko Chemical sent, to Mrs. Katagi's house a document in a clear vinyl envelope. The correspondence contained the language of "Request for Your Signature" for this U.S. patent application and was accompanied with a request for response by September 9, 2004. The document and this language were both visible without opening the envelope. However, there is no response to the document to date.

Thus, it is evident that Mrs. Katagi is unwilling, or unavailable, to execute the Declaration (or the Assignment) for this U.S. patent application.
